

STYLES FROM THE WAR--No. 1

BY W. B. JOHNSTONE.

WAR IN NEW STYLES;
MILITARY COLLARS
AND COSSACK COATS.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—The tailor-made gown "with the American style" was started on its career at the fashion review at the Congress Hotel yesterday. The National Tailors' and Dressmakers' Association of America was sponsor.

"America must provide her own designs, as all communication with Paris is closed on account of the war," said President Well.

War effects are seen in all types. New features are the set-in sleeve, the tunic skirt, the high military collar and heavy braiding. Other features are vests, Roman stripes for trimmings, and plaids and frills of fur.

The coats are Cossack or Belgium or English, but always military and long. None of the coats are shorter than thirty-two inches, and are often forty-two inches, and the coats carry all the style.

Misses' Broadcloth DRESSES
Reflecting Autumn Modes

at $27.75

A very likeable street costume is the Dress illustrated and fashioned from navy, or brown broadcloths. The loops and buttons fastening the basque waist are of self color crepe de Chine; collar and revers of white satin, while the set-in sleeves have the stylish circular cuff of satin. The new straight line distinguishes the back and the buttons and loops are of crepe de Chine. The skirt has circular tunic over self-colored peau de chine.

Lace and Chiffon
Dancing
Frocks, $29.75

Fine patterned shadow lace in draped surplice effect over flesh color charmeuse for the waist; chiffon sleeves and deep girdle of self color charmeuse. The long pleated tunic is inset with shadow lace inserting and a tiny corsage bouquet at waistline adds a Frenchy touch. Shell pink and white are the dainty colors of this youthful Dancing Frock.

Afternoon Dresses of Taffeta, $18.74

In Copenhagen blue, navy, brown and black taffeta. The long waisted effect is pronounced by a deep girdle of self material; standing collar finished at front with lace frill; new box pleated tunic skirt and the waist is finished with self color buttons.

All blend harmoniously in this picturesque Blouse.

This is a wonderfully effective Blouse. A Persian Flowered Chiffon, with its glorious colorings in all the new pastel shades, is mounted over a filmy shadow lace underbody. A Frenchy tone is added by fancy thread stitches of black on the Persian Chiffon cuffs and on the chiffon where it joins the white crepe vest. The collar is very becoming, being entirely of lace, which is gracefully wired at the back, frilled and cascaded at the front.
